FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q: Do you work with people who have credit problems, such as late payments, collections, judgments or even bankruptcies?

A: We understand that financial problems occur in everybody's lifetime. Therefore we have a number of loans that allow for such financial discrepancies. The best way to handle the situation is to get advice. You can contact us either by phone or email. There is no obligation. And we will consult with you until you feel comfortable to move forward.
